THE GOLDEN PRINCIPLES

Life Lessons from Man's Best Friend

By DR. ANDY NEILLIE

The Neillies adopted Redford from a horrible situation when he, along with 65 other Golden Retrievers, was rescued from a puppy mill in the fall of 2004.

When he came to their home, he had much to learn about relationships and trust. And so did they.

Since Redford joined their family, they've come to realize several profound relationship principles.

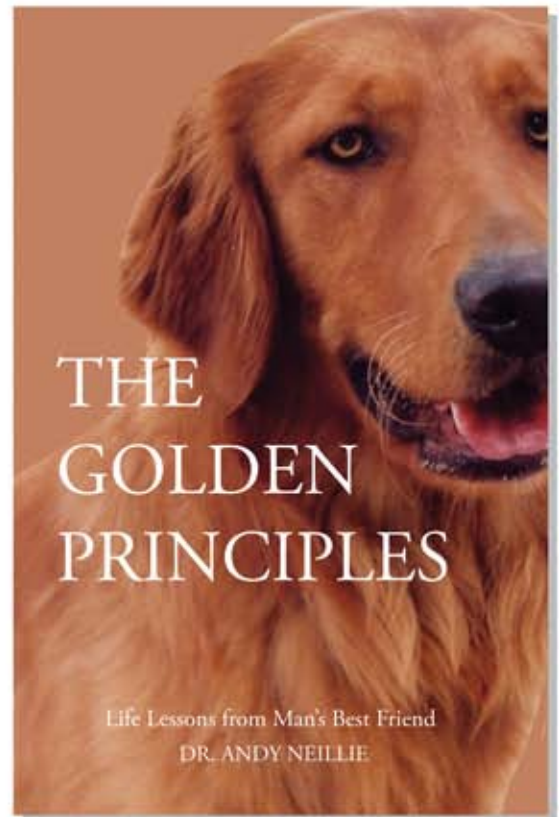

“Golden Principle #1: It doesn't matter how much you love someone, it takes time for your love to be trusted,” is the first of ten life lessons that are developed and illustrated in this warm, practical book.
