

What if you were God?

Would you play a bigger game than you are now?

By Mike Hancock

FOREWORD BY MARK VICTOR HANSEN

AUTHOR OF THE CHICKEN SOUP FOR THE SOUL SERIES

What if you were God? is the result of five years of travel and research from Egypt to Greece to Asia and South America. It is an inspirational journey as well as a straightforward detective story — revealing our life purpose, and empowering us to maximize your potential so you can contribute to the biggest of all causes. By recognizing how humans conform to musical harmony, we can join to play a bigger game with our lives.

The Author

Mike Hancock is an international professional speaker, musician, having released nine albums. He has been called Asia's leading Edu-tainer and one of the top ten coaches in Asia. Mike is a life member and master coach of XL Results Foundation, the leading entrepreneur network. He has been nominated for three extraordinary lives awards and has been the inspirational speaker of the year in New Zealand.

Sales Points

- Mike Hancock is a well-known motivational speaker and coach
- Mike's previous books include best-selling Eyes Wide Open and the innovative Can You Teach a Goat to Dance?
- Extensive promotion through Rock Your Life and national speakers networks

US Release Date: August 2010

- ISBN 978-0-473-15080-8
- IMPRINT: Rock Your Life / Oratia Media, New Zealand
- 6x9 trade paperback
- 188 pages
- $21.95
- Inspiration / Motivation

'ROCK YOUR LIFE' TITLES ARE DISTRIBUTED IN NORTH AMERICA BY:

